

News of the Week Cut Down for Busy Readers

Attorney General Daugherty wired the Department of Justice at Washington, D. C., to take no further steps in the investigation of the K. K. Klux Klan until further advised by him.

Assistance was given President Harding at Washington by Senator Watson (Iowa, Ind.) that the tax revision bill could be ready for consideration by the senate in reconvening September 21.

Maidle squads of expert prohibition enforcement officers are to be sent from Washington to various Atlantic coast cities to assist in combating the flow of liquor being smuggled into the country.

President Harding issued a proclamation at Washington ordering the miners assembled near Marmet, W. Va., to disperse.

Immigrants admitted during the fiscal year ending June 30 numbered 805,228, as compared with 430,000 for the previous fiscal year, and with an average of 1,039,040 during previous years, says a Washington report.

British makers of high-speed steel appealed to the senate finance committee at Washington to save them from what they termed "the prohibitive" import duties carried in the Fordney tariff bill. They pleaded for readjustment of the rates so that they, as Englishmen, might be allowed "to live, to work and to pay you what we owe you."

Amusement-loving America spent nearly $1,000,000,000 during the last year for theatrical entertainment, according to Internal Revenue Commissioner Blair at Washington. The 10 per cent tax on places of amusement amounted to $89,725,005.

Secretary of Commerce Hoover at Washington said that controversial questions, such as the closed shop, wages, and hours of labor, would be barred at the conference on unemployment to be called by President Harding.

The report of the commissioner of internal revenue at Washington shows that collections from income and excess profits taxes for the fiscal year 1921 fell off three-fourths of a billion dollars from the collections in 1920.

President Harding is planning to call a national conference at Washington on unemployment, to be attended by representatives of labor and the leading groups of industries. The Department of Commerce has been commissioned to arrange the conference.

Domestic

Dirigible balloon D-6 and its hangar were destroyed by fire at the Rockaway Point (N. Y.) air station. An explosion of gasoline within the hangar caused the fire. There were no casualties.

A lone masked bandit entered the Green Lake (Wash.) State bank, locked the janitor and assistant cashier in the vault and escaped with $4,000.

The safety section of the operating division of the American Railway association will hold its first annual meeting at the Hotel Copley-Plaza, Boston, Monday, September 26.

Governor Davis at Columbus, O., will consider the proposal that Dr. George T. Harding, of Marion, father of President Harding, be appointed commander of the Soldiers' home at Sandusky.

Five persons were killed when their automobile was struck by a train at La Harpe, Ill. Those reported dead are: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Egge and Mrs. William Blean.

Frank J. James and Raymond W. Schuck were put to death in the electric chair at Trenton, N. J., for the murder of David E. Paul, a Camden bank messenger.

State prohibition agents, aided by private detectives, raided many boardwalk cafes in what was described as the greatest attempt ever made to make Atlantic City, N. J., bone dry.

Coal miners, rebelling against union officials, captured a Chesapeake & Ohio passenger train at Danville, W. Va., and started it with several hundred armed men to Blair, Logan county. Several persons were shot.

Harry Frazee, millionaire theatrical manager and owner of the Boston American league club, was sued for divorce at New York. One Elizabeth Nelson is mentioned in Mrs. Frazee's complaint.

Victor Bruner, twenty-one, of Mishawaka, was killed at South Bend, Ind., when he fell 1,000 feet from an airplane while attempting to make a parachute jump. The parachute failed to adjust.

One man was killed and two were seriously wounded in the hills by a posse following a holdup of two mine officials of the New England Fuel and transportation company near Lovesville, W. Va.

State constabulary, traveling in six autos, surprised a gang of moonshiners in the watersmeet district near Iron Mountain, Mich., and arrested 10, including two women. Six stills were seized.

Eight midshipmen, who have just returned to Annapolis from the annual summer practice cruise, have resigned the naval service and their resignations have been accepted.

Bert Fleming, forty, of Michigan City, Ind., died from cutting tomatoes. Mrs. Fleming is in a critical condition. Mrs. Fleming thought she was cooking mushrooms.

Donald and Merrill Layson of Lafayette, Ind., both under twelve, were drowned in a gravel pit near Hoopesville, Ind., where they were living. Both bodies were recovered by divers.

Five thousand shirtwaist and dress-makers struck at Philadelphia as the result of a 10 per cent cut in wages. The workers claim the reduction amounts to 25 per cent.

What was described as the most sensational shooting ever seen on an American rifle range marked the performance of Machine Gunner C. A. Lloyd, United States marine corps, when he hung up a new world's record of 101 consecutive bull's-eyes, at 600 yards in the all-comers expert match of the annual rifle tournament held at Sargent, N. J.

Personal

Dr. Nathaniel Hill, ninety-seven, physician, said to be the oldest member of the Odd Fellows, in a - and point of service, died at Port Townsend, Wash. He joined the lodge 75 years ago.

Sporting

Elias F. Haak of Canton, O., won the twenty-second annual Grand American handicap, highest honor in amateur trap-shooting circles, over the traps of the South Shore Country club at Chicago. He broke 97 out of 100 targets.

Foreign

Field Marshal Gen. von Buelow, who was commander in chief of the German army during the war, died at Berlin. Marshal Von Buelow, who was seventy-six years old, was one of Germany's leaders.

A Constantinople dispatch says the Greek troops in Asia Minor have broken through the extreme left of the Turkish nationalist army, which has lost its initiative of the last few days, and have crossed the Sakaria river.

Rioting and sniping died down in Belfast following the advent of military forces which patrolled the streets in the disturbed districts. The death list in the rioting there has reached 14, while scores have been wounded.

Details of the experiences of Spanish troops captured by the Moors at Mont Arruit recently are contained in letters from the prisoners. From the garrison of 8,000 men only 900 survived, says a Madrid dispatch.

A London dispatch says an acute situation similar to that in Upper Silesia is growing up in West Hungary and allied troops were reported on the way to prevent war between Hungarians and the Austrians.

Thousands of famine sufferers in Trans-Caucasia are dying of cholera, said a cable message received by the Near East relief at New York from Albert Johnson, one of its investigators.

A dispatch from the commissariat of health of the soviet government at Moscow received by American Quakers at Philadelphia, stated there are more than 9,000,000 starving children in Russia.

President Ebert at Berlin issued a decree prohibiting meetings, processions, demonstrations and the publication of periodicals and pamphlets likely to encourage seditious movements.

Five persons were killed in the rioting which broke out anew at Belfast between armed Orangemen and Catholics. The rioting continued throughout the day despite the best efforts of police and military detachments, using armored cars.

President Ebert at Berlin has issued a decree forbidding persons not belonging to the army to wear uniforms.

The discovery of a secret organization plotting a revolution in Hungary was announced by the police at Budapest. Fifty-six arrests have been made.

Army authorities at Tokyo received an unconfirmed report that Gen. Baron Ungren-Sternberg, who has been conducting an offensive against the Far Eastern republic, has been captured.

COLDS
Are quickly and safely relieved by
ASPER-LAX
TRADE MARK
The Laxative Asperin
It contains the necessary properties to relieve the ailment by assisting nature to eliminate poisonous wastes, the removal of which is essential to relief.
At All First Class Druggists
Box of 15 Tablets—30c
The "Lax" Gently Acts

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Swearingen were in Pineville Monday shopping.

Cecil Maxey went to Knoxville on Tuesday on business.

Mr. P. D. Brittain is now able to walk around the porch and is improving nicely.

Sylvester Geyer has returned from Chicago.

Miss Blanche Scent went to Valhalla Wednesday of last week to visit Miss Marjorie Brown.

Misses Cora and Georgia Geyer leave Sunday for Clinton and Louisville to visit friends and relatives.

Mrs. Oscar Mealer is visiting relatives and friends in Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico.

Elmer Dickor, formerly of Washington, D. C., has been transferred to government work at Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Gertrude Phillips is teaching at Grays where she has a large enrollment of pupils.

Ray Miller and Alvin Sims went to Lexington Sunday by car to take in the fair.

The fifteen months old child of Mr. and Mrs. George Barnes, who lives above the depot, died on Sunday night.

John Henry Detherage, store manager of the Creech Coal Co., Harlan, spent ten days with home folks during the fair.

Louis Herrera, of Merida, Yucatan, Mexico, a student at Berea College, visited Denver Miller during the fair. Denver is possessed of a set of nice photographs showing the beauties of the Spanish architecture of the city.

On account of the recent illness of Judge J. T. Stamper the speaking announced for Sunday afternoon at the Court House will be postponed to some future date.

An exploratory oil well is being drilled two miles west of the Episcopal School Farm, Corbin, by the Exploration Petroleum Company.

There will be services at Trace Branch Methodist Church morning and evening, Rev. John Ruggles in charge.

Louis Sturm, of Appalachia, Va., was here Monday as was Louis Mereshbloom, of Corbin. Both were the guests of the Sam Cawn family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Campbell, from down the river, are spending a few days with the parents of Mrs. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Green.

Dr. F. R. Burton went to Knoxville Friday, returning via Ralston where Mrs. Burton was visiting and persuaded her that he was hungry for her cooking.

A child was born to Mrs. L. S. Monhollen last week. Her husband, Squire Monhollen, who was a candidate for County Judge, died during the progress of the campaign.

James M. Spurlock and Noah Smith, of Elys, were here Tuesday. Mr. Spurlock, who is in the lumber business, reports improvement all along his line of industry.

It is reported, tho we have not verified the statement, that Ben Diahman has been transferred to Cincinnati from Washington, D. C. in the employ of the government.

James C. Bright came in from Macon, Ga., and will preach at the Baptist Church Sunday night. He is enjoying his studies and reports Mrs. Bright and children are well.

The Knox County School Fair will be held at U. C. Gymnasium October 7th and 8th. A splendid exhibit of all kinds is expected but especially of chickens.

M. Cannon announces that his hat is in the ring for the office of Mayor. He is in the habit of putting things thru by express and feels he can handle the business of the city in the same way.

Gov. James D. Black on Monday had the contest of Avree vs. Golden thrown out of court, thus quashing the suit which was brought against Judge B. B. Golden in an effort to deprive him of the nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney of the Bell-Harian District.

THAT DULL ACHING

Don't worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of it! For weak kidneys, lame and aching backs, your neighbors recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor! Read this statement:

Mrs. Herbert Miller, Allison Ave., says: "I think Doan's Kidney Pills are fine for backache and I gladly recommend them. Not long ago I had an attack of backache. There was a dull, nagging pain in the small of my back and I had sharp, stinging pains in my side that hurt dreadfully when I was doing my housework. If I stooped over I would get dizzy and specks came before my eyes. Doan's Kidney Pills have put a stop to the trouble and I can tell anyone they are all that is claimed for them."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Miller had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

A TIP TO OUR FOLKS

It is hard work to get folks in most communities to pass the news along to the editor of the home paper. S. A. Mellen, of the Plymouth, Wis., Reporter, tried an unusual slant the other day to stimulate "contribs." Here it is:

HAS ANY ONE

Died Had a fire Elope
Had a baby Divorced Had a party Left town Sold a farm Embezzled Been arrested Come to town Had twins Or colic Sold a cow or lost an auto Stolen a dog or his friend's wife Committed suicide or murder
Fallen from an airplane Fallen into the well Fallen into a legacy?

Well, then,

THAT'S NEWS

So phone it in or mail to "The Mountain Advocate."
We make our troubles known.—Contributed

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Richards celebrated with a surprise dinner Sunday evening in honor of Bertha Burman's tenth birthday. The dining room was lighted only by the ten glowing candles on the cake in the center of the table when the little guest entered revealing the perfectly appointed table and the other guests. Her surprise was complete. Those present were, Mrs. W. B. Minton, Emily and William, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burman, Bertha and Mr. and Mrs. Richards.

How We Help
This is the way we line it up:
First—Service
Second—Advice
Third—Battery Sales
"Service" is, and always will be, our job 365 days in the year, but we're on the job anytime to show you a Still Better Willard Battery with Threaded Rubber Insulation—the kind selected by 152 manufacturers of passenger cars and motor trucks.
Catron Garage
Barbourville, Ky.

Do you realize the importance of proper attention to your car? Did you ever stop to think that a little tightening and attention now will save you a large repair bill later on? We believe in keeping you out of trouble and in getting you out of trouble when you are in.
MECHANICS THAT GIVE SERVICE
GASOLINE 27c
QUAKER STATE MOTOR OILS
Catron Garage
BARBOURVILLE, KY.

COTTINGIM NEWS

Sam Abner has begun saving fodder.
James Lyttle and family have been visiting Mrs. Lyttle's father, John C. White, for the past few days.
Tom and Taylor Jarvis, of Tedders attended Sunday School at this place last Sunday.
Miss Lydia Hammons has returned home and everybody is glad to see her.
T. C. Cundiff made a trip to Manchester last Saturday.
John Mills and Bill Tuttle must aim to go hauling for they bought a lot of harness in Manchester last Saturday.
Bob Hacker is furnishing a lot of the boys with work since he moved his mill to Horse Creek.
J. R. Cottongim is hauling ties.
Several of the young people of this place attended Church at Antioch last Sunday.

GOOD BOY.

A letter from Miss Fleta Gertrude Ryder, dated the Philippines, where she is teaching in a government school states she is living in a town of 50,000 people of whom only 22 are white.

Advocate Printing quickly done.

Liggett's
THE CHOCOLATES WITH THE WONDERFUL CENTERS
A selection of all your favorites—just the kinds that everyone likes best—and none of the other kinds. Put up in the inexpensive, though handsome, orange-and-gold box, so that the value can be all put in the candy itself. Every piece made of pure ingredients—pure, fresh sugar, chocolate, nuts, fruits, cream, butter, honey, etc. Buy her a box today.
HERNDON DRUG CO.
The REXAL STORE
Barbourville, Ky.

Everything for QUALITY
—nothing for show
THAT'S OUR IDEA in making CAMELS—the Quality Cigarette.
Why, just buy Camels and look at the package! It's the best packing science has devised to keep cigarettes fresh and full flavored for your taste. Heavy paper outside—secure foil wrapping inside and the revenue stamp over the end to seal the package and keep it air-tight.
'And note this! There's nothing flashy about the Camel package. No extra wrappings that do not improve the smoke. Not a cent of needless expense that must come out of the quality of the tobacco.
Camels wonderful and exclusive Quality wins on merit alone.
Because, men smoke Camels who want the taste and fragrance of the finest tobaccos, expertly blended. Men smoke Camels for Camels smooth, refreshing mildness and their freedom from cigarette aftertaste.
Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camel
Z. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY, Winston-Salem, N. C.